NOTE

THIS First Supplement to The Month Index embraces a period of thirteen years, from January, 1909, to December, 1921. It follows the plan of its predecessor, being divided into "Subjects" (Titles) and "Authors." Stories and poems are for the most part indexed under "Authors" only. In the dating the year is printed once only, in clarendon type; thus each month mentioned should be referred to the next preceding year. Some few items, accidentally omitted from the previous volume, are inserted in this.
